A. ASLO members agreed to follow-up with contacting departments teaching general education courses that had not yet reported their ratings on the GEOs.

B. Shall we simply accept faculty ratings on whether communication skills are a central focus of their courses, or try to clarify further what a “4” or “5” rating is intended to designate?

VIII. New Business

A. Discuss what Mira Costa College representatives should cover at the March Flex Day meeting.

B. The Warning status given LBCC by ACCJC makes it imperative that the ASLO committee continue to develop a comprehensive assessment plan. (See handout: LBCC from Vision to Outcomes)

C. It is time to look at program-level outcomes for non-GE program departments. Let us summarize the latest discussion regarding what constitutes a program, and try to identity a handful to concentrate on next.
